NEWS RELEASE
January 29, 2009

Gold Port Resources Ltd.: Chief Financial Officer Appointed

Vancouver, British Columbia – Gold Port Resources Ltd. (the “Company”)(TSX-V:GPO) announced today the appointment of David Camp as Chief Financial Officer. Wayne Johnstone has resigned as Chief Financial Officer and Director to pursue other business matters. Mr. Johnstone has provided the Company with over four years of professional service, and the board of directors wishes him well in his future pursuits.

Mr. Camp’s education includes a B.A.S. from York University in Toronto, Canada with a major in Accounting (1983) and a M.B.A. from the Schulich School of Business in Toronto Canada (1988). Mr. Camp is both a Certified Public Accountant and a Chartered Accountant.

Mr. Camp’s professional experience began as a staff accountant at Ernst and Young Canada from 1983 to 1987. From 1987 to 1990 he was Financial Manager at Quest International (UNILEVER) Canada. In 1990 he was appointed Controller and Treasurer for Sensient Technologies Canada, becoming Division Controller and Treasurer for Sensient Technologies’ California Division (NYSE: SXT) from 1995 to 2000.

Mr. Camp has worked for the MedicAlert Foundation in California as Vice-President of Finance and Controller, and for Ratto Brothers of Modesto, California as Controller. From 2004 to 2005 Mr. Camp was Controller of Century Mining and Tamerlane Resources. Subsequently he has been in private practice.

On Behalf of the Board of Directors of Gold Port Resources Ltd.

Adrian F.C. Hobkirk
President and Chief Executive Officer
